Miss. Stephenson County Fair Queen Pageant Jr. Miss Detailed Competition Information

PERSONAL INTERVIEWS: are timed events – four (4) minutes for each contestant to present yourself and your personality. There are no wrong answers. The judges will be especially interested in your mental alertness, sincerity and general knowledge. They may ask personal opinion questions, but there will be no current event questions that you need to “study” for unless you “open the door” by inclusion on your application or in your response to a question. You will be seated across from the panel. Sit up and do not cross your feet. Dresses, skirt and blouse (no slacks) are appropriate. See Pageant Director for details. Check to be certain your clothing fits correctly when seated and your skirt is not too tight or short. Be aware of your appearance, vocabulary and manners. Those who are confident and appear relaxed have always done well.

SPEECH & COMMUNICATION SKILLS: As Jr. Miss you may be called upon to speak to groups or individuals throughout your reign. You must be comfortable speaking and be able to express yourself naturally. You will give a speech that takes one minute or less. You will be using a handheld microphone, no podium. We will practice during a specified rehearsal to become comfortable on stage. You will be given a topic ahead of time so that you will have ample time to prepare. Make your speech stand out by using specific facts that create pictures in the listener’s mind. When preparing for this part of the competition, remember that;

*Singing part of your presentation is not allowed, and poems should be avoided.

*Props of any kind are not allowed. Remember, this is an opportunity for the judges to see how you will speak before and respond to a crowd.

CROWN BOWL QUESTIONS: These questions are usually more difficult than general interview questions and may refer to current events or issues.

STAGE PRESENCE: This competition is designed for the contestant to make an on-stage statement of her personality, gracefully moving with poise and confidence. Choose a dress that reflects your own individual style. You will see a wide variety – partially beaded, chiffon with fuller skirts, halter style with straight skirt, fully sequined and beaded, with trains and without. Choose one in your best color that compliments you and makes you feel like a queen; but follow these guidelines:

- It may be floor length, but doesn’t have to be.
- Splits in skirts must be no further than 4 inches above the middle of the knee and will be checked by pageant director.
- No hoop skirts (the stage is crowded).
- If you choose a dress with a train it must be bustled for group entrances & exits (like a wedding dress). You do not want to have your gown ruined due to an accidental misstep by the contestant next to you. Make sure to practice in your gown, including short flights of steps and simple pivots.
- Pads to increase bust size are not permitted.
- “Cut outs” in the front or sides must be filled in with a sheer fabric that matches the color of the dress.

- Open backed dresses must stop at your natural waistline. Anything open or with nude sheer fabric below the natural waistline must be filled in with solid color fabric to match the color of the dress.
- All visible tattoos and body piercings with the exception of pierced ears (max 2 per ear) must be covered or removed.
- There are many pretty evening gown shoes available; however, you do not want to draw attention to your feet rather than your face. The best bet are shoes the same color as your hemline or taupe. Remember if you choose “clear plastic shoes” they have a tendency to either stretch or force your foot forward making it difficult to either keep the shoe on or walk on stage. If clear shoes absolutely make your outfit, make sure they fit properly.

To avoid surprises, it is wise to try your interview outfit and dress on the week before the Pageant for a final fitting and to get the total look.

*Approval of Speech, and dress is required and photo taken by the Pageant Director no later than June 17, 2023 unless authorized by the Pageant Director. If anyone is having problems finding the appropriate attire, please notify the Pageant Director for assistance. If purchasing clothing for this pageant, please keep all tags on for return until approved.

* A $50 entry fee is required from each contestant and due on the registration deadline (or at the latest the Informational Meeting on June 4, 2023

* A Bio/Questionnaire is due by the second rehearsal on June 17, 2023

Please feel free to contact me with any questions regarding the pageant or rehearsals. I can be flexible but need to be fair to all and I need commitment from all of our contestants. Our most important goal is to have fun, so come join us!
